Michael A. Brady

Buffalo Panel

Personal Background:

Buffalo, NY

Education:

Le Moyne College, B.S., 1970; Cornell University, J.D., cum laude, 1975

Work History:

Michael A. Brady has devoted his legal practice exclusively to litigation and trial work. Before forming Hagerty & Brady in 1989, Mr. Brady was a law clerk to then Chief Judge John T. Curtin, WDNY (1975-77); a litigation associate at Hodgson Russ LLP (1977-79); an Assistant United States Attorney, WDNY (1979-83, ending as the Chief, Criminal Division); and as an associate and then a partner in the litigation department of Moot & Sprague (1983-89).

Areas of Practice:

Mr. Brady's litigation practice has been widespread, including personal injury, insurance defense, construction law, environmental law, commercial law, employment disputes, legal malpractice and aviation law. He has tried complex cases in state and federal court on behalf of plaintiffs and defendants. Since the commencement of the Western District of New York's Mediation Program which became operative in 2006, Mr. Brady has mediated well over 100 Federal Court lawsuits. These mediations have included wrongful death actions, commercial disputes, trademark litigation, admiralty disputes, construction disputes, personal injury actions, ERISA disputes; FDCPA actions and numerous other matters. In addition to his role as a Federal Court panel mediator, Mr. Brady is frequently requested to mediate State Court disputes in Buffalo and Rochester. He has also been engaged to arbitrate disputes both as single arbitrator and as a member of a panel.

Professional Achievements:

On the occasion of the dedication of the new Federal Courthouse in Buffalo, on May 3, 2012, the judges of the Court recognized Mr. Brady with the Court's first Professionalism Award. The award recognized Mr. Brady's contributions to the Court's mediation program, his pro bono work at the Court, and his efforts in the community, specifically his multiyear involvement in the high school Mock Trial program in which he coaches a local high school Mock Trial team. Mr. Brady has been recognized by the Attorney General of the United States for his work in a series of bank fraud prosecutions in Federal Court in Buffalo. He was also selected by Judge Richard J. Arcara as a Special Prosecutor in federal court on a series of contempt citations. More recently, he has been recognized by various peer reviews including Best Lawyers in America, Super Lawyers and Business First's Who's Who in Law. He has long held the Martindale-Hubbell AV rating and is listed in the Bar Register of Preeminent Lawyers.

Douglas S.
Coppola

Buffalo Panel

Personal Background:

Doug Coppola has been married to Mimi Barnes Coppola for 32 years. His wife is retired from the Buffalo Board of Education where she was a teacher trainer/coordinator of the Special Education Training and Resource Center. In retirement, Mimi helped cofound the Elmwood Village Charter School. She continues on its Board of Trustees. Mimi is also an adjunct professor of education at Canisius College. Doug and Mimi have three sons. Steven is a 2006 Princeton graduate and bronze medal winner in the Men's 8 Rowing in the 2008 Beijing Olympics. He is training full time for the 2012 Games to be held in London. Kellen is a 2009 graduate of the University of Pennsylvania and currently at Rutgers University Law School, Class of 2014. Evan is a 2010 graduate of Canisius College. He is an equity analyst at Hudson Advisors and working on his MBA. Their three sons are alumni of Canisius High School.

Education:

Doug Coppola graduated from the State University of New York at Buffalo School of Law in 1975 and was admitted to practice in February 1976. He received his undergraduate degree in 1971 from the University of Notre Dame.

Work History/Areas of Practice/Professional Achievements/ Personal Achievements:

Coppola has been a practicing attorney in civil litigation for over 35 years representing both plaintiffs and defendants in various complex personal injury and commercial litigation matters including products liability, labor law matters, commercial premises liability cases, insurance coverage disputes, medical/ dental malpractice, and general contract/business litigation. He has also represented the interests of excess carriers in serious personal injury matters. He has tried to verdict numerous cases in state and federal court and is still engaged in an active trial practice. He has been AV Rated by Martindale Hubbell and earned their "pre-eminent" designation for over 20 years. Currently, 90% of Coppola's time is devoted to ADR through either mediation or arbitration. Coppola was privileged to be part of the initial trained panel of approved attorneys to handle mediation of commercial matters for the Eighth Judicial District in the New York State Courts in 2000 and he has continued with additional training in addition to his active case resolutions. He is on the current Court ADR panel for mediations, arbitrations, and neutral evaluations for the entire Eighth Judicial District Supreme Court and has regular referrals from the many Justices to mediate pending personal injury and non-personal injury matters. He underwent Federal Court mediation training in February 2009 and is a member in good standing of the WDNY Mediation Roster. Coppola has been involved in 750+ case resolutions as mediator, neutral or sole arbitrator since 2000. Since 2009, he has conducted 240+ mediations resulting in $110+ million dollars in settlements and 150+ arbitrations as a neutral or sole arbitrator. He has been active in ADR on behalf of his own personal clients for over 15 years as well. Coppola has been honored to be selected in the Business First 2007-2011 editions of "Who's Who In Law Western New York" for arbitration and mediation nominated by his peers in the legal community. He has been selected for ADR in New York Super Lawyers since 2009. Doug is honored to be a Charter Member of the NY Chapter of the National Academy of Distinguished Neutrals. Coppola received the 2008 Charles H. Dougherty Civility Award from the Bar Association of Erie County after nomination by the Bar's Judge's Committee. He is a former member of the Erie County Bar Association board of directors and has served on the Bar's Nominating Committee. Coppola is the current Chair and original member of the City of Buffalo Board of Ethics since 1999. He is a former past president of the Western New York Trial Lawyers Association and UB Law Alumni Association.

Background:
Born in New York City and grew up downstate, where I attended public schools. I went to college in Vermont, where I met my wife. My father was a lawyer and practiced for more than 60 years, both in New York City and Florida. My brother is a lawyer, and is a partner in a large regional law firm. I always wanted to be a lawyer. After law school in Cleveland, we moved to Buffalo to raise our family (my grandchildren are 6th generation Buffalonians). Our five sons all went to public school in Amherst New York, all have graduated college, and several have professional degrees, although none are lawyers. My hobbies are fly-fishing, boating and collecting coins and vintage plastic toys. I have three grandchildren.

Education:
1976 - B.A. (Political Science) University of Vermont, Burlington 1979 - J.D. Case Western Reserve University School of Law, Cleveland (Associate Editor – Law Review; Instructor – Research, Writing and Advocacy)

Work History:
I joined Kavinoky Cook as an associate immediately after taking the New York Bar in July 1979 and became a partner there in 1985. I left 22 years later to start my own firm, but was courted by Damon Morey soon after opening my shop. I am a Partner at Barclay Damon, LLP (formerly Damon Morey, LLP) where I serve as Chair of the Labor and Employment Practice Group. I also am a member of Barclay Damon's Business Litigation and Insolvency Practice Group. I have practiced in the federal and state courts throughout New York, including New York's highest court, the Court of Appeals, as well as in the Second Circuit Court of Appeals. I have been admitted pro hac vice in federal district courts in Arizona, California, Pennsylvania, and Wisconsin

Areas of Practice:
I have mediated or litigated shareholder and other corporate governance disputes, and claims involving securities, contracts, real property (eminent domain, tax assessment, zoning, building code violations, and regulatory demolition), patents and trademarks, and labor and employment proceedings and litigation. I have counseled clients on labor, employment, business, commercial and intellectual property matters and represented clients before state and federal agencies and courts for more than thirty years.

Professional Achievements:
I am listed in the Best Lawyers in America® for Labor and Employment; Upstate New York Super Lawyers for Labor and Employment; Business First of Buffalo's "Who's Who in Law" for Labor and Employment; and Who's Who in American Law®. I have an AV Peer Review Rating® by Martindale-Hubbell for Very High Ethical Standards and Very High to Preeminent Legal Ability. I am a member of the Bar Association of Erie County, the New York State Bar Association, and the American Bar Association. I am also a member of the Society of Human Resource Managers, the Buffalo Niagara Human Resources Association, and the Labor and Employment Research Association. I volunteer as an attorney-client fee dispute arbitrator for the Erie County Bar Association Fee Dispute Program.

Personal Achievements:
I lecture and make presentations, including trainings on: mediation, civil procedure, litigation avoidance and substantive law topics for the United States District Court for the Western District of New York, the New York State Bar Association, the Erie County Bar Association, the New York State Department of Labor, clients, community groups, trade associations and schools. Additionally, I have been interviewed as a source for several newspaper articles and have authored dozens of articles on a variety of topics. I am a Director and Officer of Legal Services for the Elderly and Disabled of Western New York, Inc. I am a Trustee of the Roger Tory Peterson Institute in Jamestown, New York. I am a Director Emeritus and former President of The Great Lakes Experience, a support organization for the U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service.

Buffalo Panel

Background:

East Aurora, New York; Fountain Hills, Arizona. I was born and raised in Buffalo, New York and attended Bennett High School, graduating in 1965. Briefly, I lived in Cheektowaga, New York, subsequently, for 30 years in Elma, New York and currently reside in East Aurora, New York.

Education:

I graduated in 1969 with a BA from SUNY at Buffalo and received my Juris Doctor degree in 1972 from SUNY Buffalo. In college, I became a brother in Theta Chi Fraternity and was member of the Inter-Fraternity Council. In Law School, I was on staff of the 8th Judicial District Law Library and a member of the Prisoner Release Program.

Work History:

After graduation from Law School I worked in the Law Department of Delaware North Corporation (then Sports service Corporation) where I was involved in contracts, labor-related issues, property issues and other related corporate matters. I briefly worked with Charles Spinner, Esq. and then went on to my current firm. My work has primarily been plaintiff and defense of personal injury litigation, estate planning and litigation, and insurance disputes. I also represent a number of business interests.

Areas of Practice:

My entire career has largely focused on personal injury litigation, both defense and plaintiff. I have also represented plaintiffs and defendants in insurance claims, fire losses, and property claims. I also have a fairly large estate practice and business practice which have resulted in estate and business litigation. I have also served, when it existed, on the Buffalo City Court arbitration panel, arbitrating numerous cases in the 1970s and early '80s

Professional Achievements:

I was honored to be elected to the Board of Directors of the Bar Association of Erie County, having also served on a number of committees including the Judiciary and the Unlawful Practice of Law. I have also been asked and accepted on a number of occasions, to be a fee-dispute arbitrator on behalf of the Bar Association.

Personal Achievements:

I have served as President, Treasurer, and Secretary of the Elma Kiwanis Club; Vice President of the Leukemia Society of Buffalo; served on the Board of Directors of the EMW Soccer League and coached both soccer and softball when my children were younger. Having been involved in literally hundreds of mediations over the years and being an attorney who has handled a variety of matters, in particularly representing the plaintiffs and defendants interests, I believe that I can fairly look into the position of all parties and attorneys and to reasonably deal with anyone to try to reach fair and acceptable conclusions.
